

Respect for Human Diversity

Cross Reference: JD-Safe Schools Charter, JGK-Communication Devices/Personal and Electronic Devices, JGA-Behavior Management,

Beautiful Plains School Division values the following principles toward ensuring safe and inclusive school environments for all:

- Safe and caring learning environments
- Positive school environments
- Acceptance and respect of others
- Clear and consistent communication regarding expectations of conduct
- Social responsibility
- Understanding of issues such as bullying, harassment and discrimination
- Fair and reasoned responses to incidents, interventions that repair harm, strengthen relationships and restore a sense of belonging

Definitions:

Diversity: encompasses all the ways in which human beings are both similar and different. It means understanding and accepting the uniqueness of individuals, as well as respecting their differences. Diversity may include, but is not limited to gender identity, sexual orientation; age; ethnic origin; ancestry, culture; socio-economic status; religion; family status; mental and physical disability.

Equity: refers to the provision of equitable opportunity, equitable access to programming, services, and resources critical to the achievement of outcomes for all students and the staff who serve them. Equity and equality are not necessarily synonymous, as equity can be achieved through unequal means.

Undue hardship (Reasonable Accommodation): sometimes accommodation becomes so difficult, it becomes unreasonable or an undue hardship. Some factors that determine whether reasonable accommodation to the point of undue hardship has been made include: financial costs, health and safety concerns, impact on other employees and service users and the impact on other protected rights.

Bullying: is behaviour that is intended to cause fear, intimidation, humiliation, distress or other forms of harm to another person's self esteem, body or reputation and is intended to create a negative school environment for another person.

Bullying takes place in a context of a real or perceived power imbalance between the people involved and is typically repeated behaviour.

It may be direct (face to face) or indirect (through others), and it may take place through any form of expression – including written, verbal, or physical – or by means of any form of electronic communication (referred to as cyberbullying), including social media, text messaging, instant messaging, websites or email.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Department of Education and Advanced Learning – provide information, training and feedback to school boards and school division staff to support them in the development and implementation of human diversity policies.
- School boards – are responsible for establishing a respect for human diversity policy, in consultation with its communities and stakeholders, which complies with the legislation. The board is also responsible to ensure regular policy review.
- Beautiful Plains School Division plays a leading role in overall policy implementation, promoting respect for human diversity and communicating policy expectations to staff, students, parents, and community.
- School Administrators – play a leadership role at the school level in promoting safety and acceptance to ensure a safe and inclusive school environment. Principals communicate and reinforce expectations of respecting human diversity policy to teachers and school staffs and encourage their participation in professional development and training on human diversity and related topics. Principals hold those who disrespect human diversity accountable by following established processes and protocols and maintain appropriate records at the school.
- Teachers and other staff – model inclusiveness and respect for human diversity and play a key role in communicating and reinforcing expectations of respecting human diversity policy to students. They support students on issues of human diversity and empower them to treat each other with dignity and acceptance. Teachers and school staffs have a duty to report matters of cyberbullying to the principal, whether it is believed to be happening at school or outside of regular school hours. Staff are required to participate in professional development and training on bullying behaviour prevention and respect for human diversity through the Respect in Schools training program.

- Students – have responsibility to monitor their own interactions and conduct in ways that ensure a welcoming, safe and inclusive school environment; particularly toward those previously identified as being at higher risk for bullying discrimination.
- Parents and guardians – play an important role in their children’s understanding and respect for human diversity. Parents have responsibility to encourage their children to conduct themselves in ways that contribute to a safe and inclusive school environment.

Dealing with Discrimination

Beautiful Plains School Division will respond to the incidents of discrimination as outlined in the Human Rights Code (Subsection 9(2)). If the incident originates with a student or students, the Division/School Code of Conduct will apply.

Policy Review and Evaluation

Beautiful Plains School Division will identify and collect relevant data and monitor implementation to inform future policy refinements.
