

TRANSFER OF STUDENTS FROM FEEDER BUSES

When it is necessary to transfer students from one bus to another those students must remain on the first bus, under the supervision of the driver, until they can transfer directly onto the second bus.

Should any student fail to make the transfer, and accept an alternate means of transportation, it is the responsibility of bus drivers to report this action to the Supervisor of Transportation immediately.

Approved October 15, 1985
Reviewed October 18, 1994